PLACER SUPERIOR COURT INVITES COMMENT ON OFF-CYCLE UPDATE TO LOCAL RULES OF COURT

The Placer County Superior Court (“Court”) invites comments on the proposed off-cycle update to its Local Rules of Court. The amendments impact the Court’s remote appearance policies in evidentiary and non-evidentiary proceedings in Civil, Family Law, Juvenile Justice, and Juvenile Dependency cases. The amendments also reduce the court’s remote appearance fee to $71. This fee will be charged in civil, family, and probate cases that are assessed a filing fee, pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.672 and Government Code, section 70630.

Senate Bill 241, also known as the California Court Efficiency Act, created new Code of Civil Procedure section 367.75. To comply with the new law, the Court revised Emergency Local Rule 10.28 on January 1, 2022, with the intention of revisiting the Court’s Local Rules later to comply with the rule of court created by CCP 367.75 (Cal. Rule of Court 3.672). Courts have until March 31, 2022 to comply with the new rule, and there are provisions allowing for an out-of-cycle local rules revision. To ensure compliance with Cal. Rule of Court 3.672(e)(4), the Court must post these off-cycle rules on or before March 11, 2022 to become fully effective March 31, 2022.

To view the proposed amendments, visit the Court’s website at www.placer.courts.ca.gov and select General Info, then Local Rules. The Court will accept comments on the proposed amendments through March 10, 2022. Comments must be submitted via e-mail to courtadmin@placer.courts.ca.gov.
