

Do You Want to Ask the Judge to Make Court Orders in Your Family Case? (Request for Order)

$5.00

What is this for?	This packet contains the forms to ask for a court hearing about family law issues such as custody/parenting time (visitation), child support, spousal support, property, and other miscellaneous issues.
Step 1: Fill out the forms	Request for Order (FL-300) Also add this form if you are asking for child support, spousal support, or an attorney fees order: Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) See page two of these instructions for definitions, important things to know and information on additional forms.
Step 2: Make copies	Make 2 copies of the forms, unless you are filing for child support and the Department of Child Support Services (DCSS) is involved; then make 3 copies. Note: If you file electronically, copies are not required (see Step 3). Paperclip (do not staple) the original. The copies may be stapled. Put the copies right behind each original.
Step 3: File the forms	Get a number ticket for “Family Law” at the kiosk on the 1st floor of the courthouse. File the forms with the clerk when your number is called. The court will file-stamp your forms and give you back the copies. You will keep a filed copy for your records and have the other copy served on the other party.
eFiling	Alternatively, the Court has the option to file electronically through its eFile Service. For filing and more information, please visit placer.courts.ca.gov and select “eFiling” under the Online Services tab. This webpage contains instructions and FAQs to assist with the process. There is a service fee for eFiling paid to the third-party vendor and cannot be waived by the Court. Note: each form must be a separate PDF unless it contains attachments.
Filing fee	There is a $60.00 fee to file the Request for Order with the Court, unless you are asking for a change in a custody/parenting time order, which is $85. The court accepts cash, check, Visa, MasterCard, AMEX and Discover Card. If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, you may apply for a fee waiver by filling out and filing these forms: Request to Waive Court Fees (FW-001) Order on Court Fee Waiver (FW-003)

Step 4: Serve the other party	You must have a copy of your forms handed (“personally served”) to the other party in person, along with a blank Responsive Declaration to Request for Order (FL-320). If your Request for Order is for support or attorney fees, you must also serve a blank Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150). Copies from eFiling may be printed from your eFiling account. Someone 18 or older must serve the forms for you. You cannot serve the forms yourself. The person who serves the forms to the other party must completely fill out a Proof of Personal Service (FL-330) and give it to you to file.
Step 5: Serve DCSS (if required)	If your Request for Order is about child support and the Department of Child Support Services (DCSS) is involved in your case you must have a copy of your forms served on them at: 1000 Sunset Blvd Suite #200 Rocklin, CA 95765 Someone 18 or older must serve the forms for you. You cannot serve the forms yourself. The person who serves the forms must completely fill out a Proof of Personal Service (FL-330) and give it to you to file.
Step 6: File the Proof(s) of Service	Make 1 copy of the Proof(s) of Service and get a number ticket for “Family Law” at the kiosk on the 1st floor of the courthouse to file the original and copy. Keep the filed copy for your records.
Next Steps:	Come to your court hearing prepared to tell the Judge why they should make the court orders you’ve asked for in your legal forms. Know that you can only ask the Judge to make orders or use information you included in your filing.

Definitions and Important Things to Know

- Legal Custody: The parent(s) who makes decisions regarding the health, education and general welfare and well-being of the child(ren).
- Physical custody: The parent(s) with whom the child(ren) live or spend considerable time.
- Parenting Time (Visitation): The schedule of time the child(ren) spend time with each parent.
- Child Support: Generally calculated based on parenting time and the incomes of each parent. The court has the ability to award child support until the child marries, dies, is emancipated, reaches age 19, or reaches age 18 and is not a full-time high school student, whichever occurs first.
- Spousal Support: Money paid to a (ex-)spouse to help them become self-supporting in the future. This is separate from child support. For more information, see Fam. Code sec. 4320.

Additional Forms

You may need to file other forms with your Request for Order. There are specific attachments for custody, spousal support and payment history, for example. If you have questions, please make an appointment with the Self-Help Center.

Can I Access My Court Case Electronically?

Court users can now receive access to their file/orders electronically by three different methods:

Online Portal: You can come to the courthouse and show ID to gain access;

eFiling: If you check the box on eFiling, you will receive your orders via email; you will also receive portal access if you pay for a filing (so you do not need to come into the courthouse to show ID);

eService: You may consent to receive notice and orders by email. This can be done by submitting Judicial Council Form EFS-005-CV.

Where can I get the forms?

1. For an app that helps you fill out the forms to start a case, go to caguideandfile.com
