1. T-CV-0002531 Nguyen, Ann v. Berchtold, Victoria

Respondent is advised the notice of motion must include notice of the court's tentative ruling procedures. (Local Rule 20.2.3(C).)

Request to Terminate the Civil Harassment Restraining Order

Respondent Victoria Berchtold moves to terminate the August 6, 2026 order renewing the civil harassment restraining order ("CHRO") between the parties. No opposition to this motion has been filed.

Code of Civil Procedure section 527.6(j)(3) requires that a request to terminate a protective order that is not brought by the protected person must be personally served on the protected person. Here, respondent filed a proof of service on October 8, 2026 that shows mailed service only. As the motion is not supported by personal service, it may not be granted.

The request to terminate the CHRO is denied.
